

This to let you know how strongly I feel about K-Love and the influence it brings to my community....this is a service that most definitely serves the public and all who listen. The effect would be catastrophic if K=Love were ever replaced by an LPFM broadcaster which provide otherf programming. I have built my life around the K-Love music and message. Thank you